May Underwood, Enquirer

Dear Bill,

From our conversation late this afternoon, I’ll guess you won’t go out in tonight’s circuit, you may have trouble, for it might not reach you today. If it has almost completed its swing as soon as the door, I’ll take this into town.

However, this means that neither of us will have a chance to read it before reading. I did think to check the weekend mail schedule. If I do not get it out promptly, if will not leave, except by truck, until late tomorrow night, and then my face a visit because a plane is not scheduled on Saturday night or Sunday.

So, it goes unread.

But one of us will go over it over the weekend. If you have any questions, or fact or typo, please ask then. I’ll not be far away Monday.

I caught part of the CBS-TV evening news tonight. It included a kind of coverup for official action in this case by Schorr. Within the past few days there has been debunking of "rumors" by both the Post, which may or may not have syndicated it, and Scripps Howard. All three spontaneously?鞍es one wonder.

Schorr added that is not in the pieces, that the car cost $300 and had been bought within the past half-year. He ignored the other expenses to say this was not impossible from savings - on an income of no more than $7,000 (he did not give this figure).

The spokes and their apologists have a limitless capacity for making platitudes, in fact, he innocent ap ear minister.

Hope you find this suitable. Wish I hadn’t had to spend yesterday in Washington.

Best regards,

Harold Underwood
